AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $600, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and under the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Under Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as it is found that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Under the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Cresencio Macedo, Jr, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, and 8 of the eight-count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 132 months. This term consists of 132 months on each of Counts 1, 2, 5, and 6, and 120 months on Count 4 and 8, all such terms to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of six (6) years. This term consists of six (6) years on each of Counts 1, 2, 5, and 6, and three (3) years on Count 4 and 8, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02.
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

3. The defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance or the use of alcohol. Further, the defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
6. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug and/or alcohol treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction, alcohol dependency, or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or abusing alcohol, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and/or alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, under 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
8. The defendant shall submit his person and property, including any residence, premises, container, or vehicle under his control, to search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer or probation officer, with or without a warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion.
9. If any law enforcement officer encounters the defendant and asks him for his name or identification, he shall promptly and accurately identify himself and, regardless of whether the defendant is asked, advise the officer that he is on federal supervision with a search condition.
10. The defendant may not associate with anyone known to him to be a member of the Eastside Anaheim gang and others known to him to be participants in the Eastside Anaheim gang's criminal activities, with the exception of his family members. The defendant may not wear, display, use, or possess any gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidences affiliation with the Eastside Anaheim gang, and may not display any signs or gestures that the defendant knows evidences affiliation with the Eastside Anaheim gang.

USA vs. EDGAR MACEDODocket No.: SACR 12-176-AG

11. The defendant shall not reside in any area purportedly claimed by the Eastside Anaheim gang, and shall not, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer, visit or be present in any area known to the defendant to be a location where members of the Eastside Anaheim gang meet and/or assemble.

Further, the Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction, alcohol dependency, or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court recommends that if the defendant is eligible, he participate in the RDAP Program while incarcerated. The Court further strongly recommends that the defendant be housed at a facility in Southern California to facilitate visitation with the many family and friends who were present in Court.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
